Munger, Tolles & Olson

Miriam Kim is a partner at Munger, Tolles & Olson. Her practice focuses on complex business litigation, intellectual property and internal investigations, with significant experience in trade secret and other disputes in the software and semiconductor industries. She has an active pro bono practice focused on the needs of survivors of sexual abuse.

Kim serves as secretary of the Asian American Bar Association of the Greater Bay Area (AABA) and as president of the AABA Law Foundation. She chairs Munger Tolles's development and retention committee and is a frequent speaker on diversity issues. After graduating from Harvard University in East Asian studies, Kim received her JD from U.C. Berkeley School of Law. She clerked for the Honorable Levin Campbell, U.S. Court of Appeals, First Circuit.
